Implementation description
- This program takes data of students' ages, GPA's, and majors and displays them in various graphs and figures. It allows the user to see a spread of data by imputing student records.

Instructions for running
- Make sure that all files are able to read data from each other.

Screenshots of visualizations

List of implemented features
- Constructor
- Function
- Classes
- Methods
- Visualizations